

Masses

On RGB and E-AGB

- Also they wonder if there was some discontinuity in the masses
- Since in their previous study the notoriously found this discontinuity
- But since they just have stars above the RGB Bump, they asked if accordingly to stellar evolution they were less massive than the expected

Masses

This masses are consistent?

